

Probus Club North Shore Vancouver
 Guest Speakers and Presentations During 2004

January	Dr. André Gerolymatos , Chair of Hellenic Studies, SFU, and a recognized world class commentator on Middle Eastern affairs: "The history of Islam and analysis of the complex current situation in the Middle East"
February	Dr John Imrie , Chief Cardiologist, Lions Gate Hospital: "Dramatic and expensive) new therapies for heart disease can we afford them?"
March	Grant Churchill , Chief Constable, West Vancouver Police and Gordon Tomlinson , Officer in Charge, RCMP, North Vancouver: "The law on the North Shore, and the need for integration of police efforts"
April	Dr Paul Kariya , Executive Director, Pacific Salmon Foundation: "The Mission: Dedicated to conserve and rebuild the Pacific salmon population through strategic programs and efforts focused to meet common goals"
May	Bryan Williams, QC: "The role of the Court in a democratic society. Is there a significant role for Judicial Activism? "
June	Dr Max Cynader , Director, The Brain Research Centre, UBC: "The Aging Brain", the challenges ahead for all of us, and the exciting research being done at the Centre"
July	John Schreiner , vintner, writer, columnist and author of articles and books about wine: "The wonderful wines of British Columbia"
August	Dr Greg Lee , President, Capilano College: "The challenges and opportunities in post-secondary education"
September	Dr Jack Blaney , Chair, Citizens' Assembly on Electoral Reform: "The current system and the difficult process of examining the options and making recommendations for a better electoral system for BC"
October	Peter Milburn , Project Director, Sea-to-Sky Highway Improvement Project: "Step by step presentation describing the immense challenges and difficulties of designing and building this enormous construction project"
November	Brian Burke , General Manager(former), Vancouver Canucks: "The basic concepts of running an NHL hockey club and the immense challenges of going back to square one to restart the club to build a winning franchise"
December	No speaker due to Christmas Luncheon