

Probus Club North Shore Vancouver
 Guest Speakers and Presentations During 2007

January	Dr. Eduard Fidler , Certified Financial Planner: “Costly mistakes in charitable giving and strategies to avoid them”
February	Dr. André Gerolymatos , Chair of Hellenic Studies, SFU: “Analysis of some current problems in the “hot spots” of the Middle East region”
March	David Baines , columnist, Vancouver Sun: “Experiences in the past 20 years uncovering white collar crime in the stock market”
April	Bev Van Ruyven , Executive Vice President Customer Care and Conservation, BC Hydro: “BC Hydro long term plans to address the emerging gap between electricity supply and demand”
May	Nick Geer , Chairman of the Board of NAV Canada, provider of Canadian civil air navigation services coast to coast: “NAV Canada’s mission - Safety in Canada’s Skies”
June	Don Krosgeth , Past Chair, Nature Trust of BC: “35 Years of Conservation of sensitive habitat lands”
July	Jamie Graham , Chief Constable, Vancouver Police Department: “Five years of challenges and experiences as Vancouver’s top cop”
August	Paul Gravett , Executive Director, Kay Meek Centre: “Successful turnaround at Kay Meek Centre and how the arts contribute greatly to West Vancouver’s cultural and business life”
September	Maurice McElrea , President, Union Gospel Mission: “History of the Mission and its important role in assisting people living through personal distress”
October	Steve Davis , President, Independent Power Producers of BC: “The part played by IPPs in response to BC Hydro challenge to return BC power generation to self-sufficiency by 2016”
November	Katherine Barber , Chief Editor, Canadian Oxford Dictionary: “A stimulating and fun look at the history of the English language”
December	No speaker due to Christmas Luncheon