Warren Jestin, Chief Economist, Scotiabank
“From Recession to Recovery”

Last Month Speaker

David Osoba thanks Dr. James MacFarlane

Dr. James McFarlane, OC, CD, P.Eng, FCAE, is the founder and President of International Submarine Engineering Ltd (ISE) in Port Coquitlam. He gave us a fascinating, detailed discussion of the history and current non-military submarine business. ISE is one of some 20 companies around the world engaged in this work. The company was started in 1974 and has produced over 220 submarines. They have helped uncover many of the secrets of the oceans around the world. 80% of ISE business is international with clients in 20 countries.

John F. Kennedy stated “Knowledge of the oceans is more than a matter of curiosity, our very survival may hinge upon it.” This is even more evident today

Back in the 1960’s business started with diving bells and manned subs which then evolved into remotely operated vehicles (ROVs) in the 1970s. The driving force is the offshore petroleum industry and its money.

The ROV is a system which includes a vehicle, tether, technical controls, crane, winch, and power, all of which are controlled from the surface. Its uses include military (harbour defence, mine detection, torpedo recovery, and accident investigation), commercial undersea accident investigation, science investigation (many unusual “critters” have been found), cable laying and support, as well as many others.

The 3rd revolution was the development of Automated Underwater Vehicles (AUVs) in the 80’s. The AUV is an untethered, pre-programmed, self-contained vehicle that is controlled from the surface and can travel in any direction under the sea. Examples of AVU uses include surveying, cable laying, inspections, geophysical exploration, and covert surveying under the sea.

Currently AUVs are surveying the northern oceans of Canada under the ice and laying cable and sensors to monitor what is happening at the North Pole and its neighbours. Pictures of an AUV being dropped through a hole cut in the ice (under a tent) in the north to do its exploration were spectacular, as was the swimming of the staff in the Arctic waters in the same hole.

The technology and accomplishments of this kind of exploration are very exciting and will no doubt help to discover much more in the deep, dark, mysterious sea.

Gordon Adair

Theseus was originally developed to lay long lengths of fiber-optic cable under the Arctic ice pack. The vehicle completed successful deployments to the Arctic in 1995 and 1996. Several 220-km cables were laid in 600 meter water depths under a 2.5 meter thick ice pack, establishing an AUV endurance record of over 60 hours – all under ice.

President's Notes

President David Osoba

Our fiscal year end is in September. So it's time to remind you that our Annual General Meeting (AGM) will be held on September 13th, 2010. At that time we will be voting on the slate of nominees for next years Management Committee (MC). The candidates being proposed by the Nominating Committee are presented on the preceding page of this newsletter. If you wish to nominate others for any of these positions, nominations are now open. Your nomination must be sent in to Esio Marzotto, the Chair of the Nominating Committee, by the 30th of August. If you do have other candidates to nominate, please make sure you have that person's permission and also provide a very brief description of your candidate's suitability for the position. If there is more than one candidate for a position we shall conduct an election at the AGM.

Your MC meets once a month throughout the year. Each member of the MC has specific duties as the Chair of a committee or as an officer of the Club (please see the side panel on page 1). We endeavour to bring you the best of speakers, to keep accurate records of our membership as well as to adhere to a reasonable budget. The main budget item is the cost of the space we rent from the Capilano Golf and Country Club for our meetings. Fortunately, we do not see any need to raise our annual membership dues in the coming year.

I look forward to seeing as many of you as can come on September 13th. I promise that the AGM, at 10:45 am, will be brief and you will then be able enjoy our excellent speaker.

David Osoba
